Dear Parents and Carers,

If you are a keyworker and have been given permission for your child to attend school, please ensure there is no other option before sending your child to school.

Gavin Williamson (Secretary of State for Education) has sent out the following message.

"You should only send your child to school if you have to, because your work is critical to our COVID-19 response. If you are able to keep your child at home, you should."

Schools are closed to stop the spread of the virus. Please remember this.

Thank you to all those keyworkers who have sorted additional childcare or only taken up the days they really need to.

If you are a keyworker and have been told that you can bring your child to school but have now been able to sort childcare on all or some of the days offered, please let us know as soon as possible.

If you are planning on sending your child to school because you believe that you fall within the key worker category, the school has the right to and may ask that your employer confirms in writing that, based on their business continuity arrangements, your specific role is necessary for the continuation of this essential public service.

Yours sincerely,

Mrs A Wheaver
