

For your writing task this week we are going to look at writing a letter.

The crayons in the book are frustrated and cross so they write letters to Duncan to persuade him to treat them better.

I want you to pretend to be any different item in a pencil case. You could be a rubber, a pencil sharpener, a ruler, a pen, a pencil or a pair of scissors.

You are going to tell your owner what is wrong with how you are been treated and what you want to change in the future.

You need to write in the first person using the words 'I, my and me'

I have written one below to help you with your ideas.

Dear Olivia,

I am your pair of old, blue scissors from your pencil case. I am writing because I feel sad, lonely and tired. You have been using me far too much and my handles are beginning to be sore and I am hurting all over. There are no other pairs of scissors in your pencil case for me to be friends with either. I don't like it when you use me to cut out thick cardboard as I am old and not as sharp as I used to be. In future, please could you ask your mum to use her sewing scissors for cutting out cardboard and save me just for cutting paper. I will find this much easier and be much happier.

Yours truly,

Your old, blue, sore scissors.

Write a list or draw pictures (or both) of all the things that make you happy.

You can use this list to help you to remember all of the things that you love doing and make you happy.

Here is my list

- Spending time with my family and friends
- Going to the seaside
- Going for a run
- Reading a good book
- Watching Olivia dancing and Martha swimming (seeing them happy makes me happy)
- A sunny day
- Messages from the Kingfishers class

I look forward to seeing your brilliant work. Remember if something is tricky or you are not sure then send me a message and I will do my best to help.

Take care,

Mrs Swancott
