

News flash – Our fantastic Library corridor

This week we have been very excited to have our walls in the library corridor wrapped. We have chosen classic fiction book covers to wow our children as they move around the school. Do look on twitter for video footage of a tour of the corridor. Please do pop in and see them when you are at parents evening this evening.